Greene County Board of Supervisors met at 8:30 a.m. in the courthouse boardroom with all supervisors present: Bardole, Burkett, Contner, Muir, Rudolph. Motion by Contner, second by Bardole to approve the agenda. Motion carried unanimously. Motion by Contner, second by Rudolph to approve the minutes of March 12, 2018. Motion carried unanimously.

Marcia Tasler was present to receive a certificate honoring her forty years of service to Greene County, with over thirty-one of those years as county recorder. Chuck Wenthold reported that Beaver Creek Watershed has received notice from the IDNR that the organization has been awarded a $100,000 planning grant. Wenthold also informed the board of an upcoming North Raccoon watershed meeting. Assistant county attorney Thomas Laehn reported receiving another public records request and indicated the board should make a formal response. Overnight travel was approved for Nick Martino and Laehn to attend the county attorney summer training conference. Supervisor Peter Bardole reported attending GCDC voting board and Chamber & Tourism meetings.

Terry Lang provided the board with an update to the county's new Teledoc program called Healthiest You whereby county employees and dependents have access to telehealth consultations with doctors. Lang estimated savings of $4,653 to the county's health plan through use of Teledoc by county employees/dependents for January and February.

Motion by Rudolph, second by Burkett to accept the Treasurer's Investment and Driver's License Report for February. Motion carried unanimously.

Engineer Wade Weiss discussed the airport project and road relocation there. Deputy auditor Billie Hoskins questioned the board on its plans for RAGBRAI relating to requests for temporary (five-day) beer permits along rural routes. Questions have been received in that office and the board is expected to develop a policy to follow. No action was taken.

Chair Muir adjourned the meeting at 9:40 a.m.
