

Public Notice

It is the intent of the Greene County Community School District to fill, by appointment, the vacancy left on the board by the resignation of Director Ashley Johnston, at the January 18, 2017 regular board meeting, to be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Administrative Building Conference Room, 204 W. Madison, Jefferson IA 50129. The director appointed will fill the seat until the September 2017 regular school election. Electors of the Greene County Community School District have the right to file a petition to require the vacancy be filled by special election. A valid petition would need to be presented to the district office within fourteen days of this notice, with 657 signatures from eligible voters.
